Press Release

Transfer of US Distribution and Customer Support

Dear Customers,

Effective October 17th, 2011, Vue Technology LLC (hereinafter CoralVue) will be taking over U.S. distribution of the complete line of Maxspect products.

For customers who had bought our Second Generation (G2) and Mazarra LED fixtures from our former U.S. distributor Fins Reef LLC, the remaining warranty of your products will be honored and supported by CoralVue.

Fins Reef LLC will no longer be responsible for any customer services support for the Maxspect line of products such as repairs, credits or refunds. Such claims should be made through CoralVue.

If you have any questions or inquiries regarding this arrangement, please do not hesitate to contact us at the following email address:
